Mr. BRYAN is rather a lively corpse, isn't he?

The Courier is a new five-column quarto, published by the Courier Publishing Company at Bloomfield, is republican in politics, taking the place of the Cosmos.

Chicago Record: Imperialism may be a good thing for the simple Filipinos, but just let Mark Hanna try to censor Roosevelt's speeches without the consent of the government.

Chicago Record: It is hard to understand why Mark Hanna opened the campaign in New Jersey when it is generally understood that the trusts are convinced already.

E. P. CARUTHERS, editor of the Dunkin Democrat, was elected first vice president of the Missouri Press association at the session held in St. Louis the 17th and 18th. A merited honor, well bestowed.

The strong support, a number of our great dailies and the German press of the country are giving Bryan this year, which supported McKinley four years ago, is convincing evidence that the tide has turned "and that's what's the matter with Hanna."

READ Mr. DOCKERY's great speech delivered at Sedalia the 21st, there is truth in it, there is honesty in it, there is argument in it and there is sound democratic gospel in it, delivered by a statesman who will make the best state on earth, one of the best governors it ever had.

FRANKLIN B. CLIPPAID, a wealthy stock raiser of Freeport, Kansas, and a cousin of President McKinley says, "I would rather have the Prince of Wales President than my cousin," and goes on to say that he backed his cousin in 1896 to the extent of $4,000, thinking he would make a better President than he has, but finds "he caters too much to European style" to the disgust of himself and all other true Americans and that McKinley and imperialism will defeat the republican party this fall and wants to bet on it and declares he will vote for Bryan and Stevenson to help save the republic.

To the Democrats of the United States.

The Democratic party and its friends must meet the forces of corruption and intimidation in politics this year by thorough organization. A Democratic club or society should be organized in every city, town, village and precinct in the United States.

Democrats and all who are in sympathy with the principles set forth by the Kansas City platform are urgently requested to join Democratic clubs, or, if none exists, to assist in organizing them.

The work of uniting the forces of law and liberty into one great systematized civic army should be carried on simultaneously in every part of the country, and without delay. The friends of government, according to the hitherto unchallenged American theory of political equality everywhere under our flag, can not afford to be less zealous or less active than the advocates of an American colonial empire, supported by rifles.

No patriotic citizen can ignore the attacks which are being made upon the foundations of our present inalienable form of government. This year every citizen should be a politician. Clubs and societies should at once communicate with the "Secretary of the National Association of Democratic Clubs, No. 1370 Broadway, New York City," so that the united membership may work systematically in defense of the Republic as the fathers made it. All Democratic committees, state and local, are requested to aid the National Association of Democratic Clubs in this work.

(Signed) W. J. BRYAN.

Wanted—A Spellbinder.

What Republican orator is to answer Mr. Bryan's Indianapolis speech?

That question is giving a great deal of anxiety to Mark Hanna and his colleagues, and each succeeding day seems only to add to the difficulty. The tone of the independent press, both east and west, has convinced the managers of the McKinley campaign that the Indianapolis speech cannot be laughed away or ignored. It is recognized everywhere as the most powerful utterance made by any candidate in recent years. Beyond a doubt, it has reached both the hearts and the minds of the people, and its effect upon the independents is already being manifested. Hanna is not unaware that Mr. McKinley's course as president has shaken the loyalty of a tremendous number of voters hitherto always faithful to the party. These voters find in the Indianapolis speech the logical and eloquent expression of their distrust. It satisfies their longings and something more besides. It has removed them from the plane of doubt to offer an active sympathy with the Bryan cause. It has made them supporters of Bryan and Stevenson, and no republican spellbinder in Hanna's command seems to rise to the occasion. We are told that Secretary Hay has been considered, but thought insufficient. Fairbanks of Indiana has been named, but he is too heavy. Frye of Maine is not strong enough. Welcott of Colorado is the favorite thus far, but it is considered that this flippant statesman has not gone deeply enough into the current questions to equip himself for the task. The same is true of Senator Davis of Minnesota, Spooner of Wisconsin, and Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts. In a word, there is not in the whole bunch of republican spellbinders a man equal to the job. Perhaps the job is too great for any spellbinder. Henry Clay himself might decline the unequal task of answering an unanswerable argument—National Democrat.

Our Correspondents.

LODGE.

The people of this vicinity were made glad by the recent good rains. Health some better at this writing.

Miss Radio Kitchens has just recovered from a two weeks illness of fever.

Mrs. M. B. Minter and son spent several days at Flat River, recently. Our school opened the 20 with an enrollment of 33 pupils, with Miss Pearl Zimmerman as teacher.

Robert Ellinghouse of St. Louis, is here visiting relatives.

Farmers are now engaged in turning the soil preparatory to sowing wheat.

Mrs. Ella Revelle of Glen Allen, spent two weeks with D. W. Wilkinson's family.

Mrs. Levi Greer of Marquand, visited relatives and friends of this place recently.

John Dennis of Cripple Creek, Colorado, is visiting M. B. Minter's family.

Miss Broma and Robert Ellinghouse were the guests of Miss Mertie and Ray Davault, Friday evening.

SEEDGROWERS.

We have been blessed with another good rain.

Wheat threshing has about come to an end for this season.

R. L. Fulbright and family, accompanied by Mrs. Caroline Seabough and family visited friends and relatives near Cape Girardeau several days last week.

L. M. Willis and wife of Libertyville, visited their old friends and relatives of this vicinity a few days last week.

T. B. Drum and John A. Seabough made a trip to Jackson last Saturday on business.

There are several cases of typhoid fever in this vicinity at present.

J. W. Fulbright, who has been working down near Goodenole, is spending a few days with his old friends and relatives.

W. F. Neff and wife have been sick for the past few days but are able to be up again.

The death of Henry Thiele, one of neighbor boys who died on the 22nd, in Marble Hill, cast a sad gloom over all who knew him. He had gone to Marble Hill to attend the institute and took sick on the second day and after lingering about four weeks, he passed away quietly.

His remains were brought here and laid to rest in our little cemetery. Henry was a young man that was well liked by everybody that knew him. He was of good moral character and came of straight, honest parents. He leaves a father, mother and five brothers and sisters and a host of friends and relatives to mourn their loss.

BUCHANAN.

The drought was broken here last Saturday by a heavy downpour of rain, which came too late to do corn any good.

Dan Corbin, Jim Gilmore and Kirby Ashcraft made a business trip to Glen Allen last Friday.

Freack Corbin and John Wiggins, with their families, visited Mr. Charles last Sunday.

J. W. Mansfield and A. W. Ashcraft, with their families spent several days last week on Stanley creek and Mingo, fishing. They had the usual fishermen's luck.

On last Sunday August 19 there was born to Mrs. Odus Corbin a fine baby girl. Mrs. Corbin and babe are getting along all right but Odus is not yet out of danger.

Oscar Mansfield has been on the sick list this week.

Quite a number of our people attended the picnic at Zalma last Saturday. A good time reported.

Aunt Nancy Mansfield visited A. W. Ashcraft's last Sunday. Aunt Nancy is eighty-five years old yet hale and hearty.

Since the rain our farmers are busy making preparations for wheat sowing. On account of the continued dry weather the crop, or acreage will be small.

Our Sunday school and singing are objects of attraction as large crowds attend each gathering. Some of our people are endowed with musical talent and with proper training will become distinguished as vocal musicians. MAX ADLER.

LUTESVILLE LOCALS.

The boys don't hollow so loudly when they play ball on Sunday here. Some St. Louisans who were here for their health have returned since the weather changed.

Rumor has it that we will have another business house here this fall, or is it a wedding, which?

All you who are weary and heavy laden with money, come to Lutesville it will do you good.

How about the fall festival? Shall we have a running big picnic, a big protracted meeting, or a hay ride.

Last Sunday quite a number of our young people took a pleasant trip to Burfordville. They were courteously received and enjoyed themselves hugely.

The good rains have put the turnip sowers to work and if luck gives us plenty of seed and if somebody don't break in the patch (no reference to editors), what a pleasant time we will have.

It is rumored that the Stanton's are going to put up a stove factory one long, above here on the railroad. The exact location not yet announced. The multiplicity of factories will soon use up the timber and then the people will have to go to farming, then our county will prosper as it never has before. No county improves rapidly until the timber is out of the way. In the fruits of its soil the prosperity and permanence of a community are to be found.

Thieves have been giving the county round a taste of the rogue's dance, but in the nick of the game Peter Eldracher steps in the ring and says, "thus far shall thou go and no farther." Then the dandy-jack-of-the-rogues hauled off his neighbor's breeches, he had stolen and stood bereft of all covering till the big-headed Sheriff, not being accustomed to such sights, got him some other clothing and gave him quarters in jail. The County Court is going to make an order requiring all thieves hereafter, before stealing other people's clothes, to leave a supply of their old clothes with the jailer so he can be prepared for emergencies. When Eldracher goes after a man he brings him in.

Our mill is doing business now and will do better soon. Machinery is now on the way from Cincinnati and will be put in by one of the best millwrights in south Missouri probably next week and our mill will make as good flour as any mill in south Missouri. Come over and eat biscuits with us. (Many thanks, we will make it a point to accept the invitation.—Ed.)

County Court Proceedings.

AUGUST TERM, 1900.
